

WOW, TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

In fact, according to a recent survey, most high school students actually don't drink.

TOGETHER, WE ARE MAKING
UNDERAGE DRINKING A THING OF THE PAST.

Today more than ever, parents are taking an active role in helping their kids remain alcohol free:

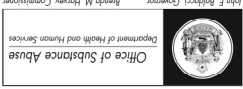

- Setting clear rules and enforcing them
- Getting to know their kids' friends and their parents
- Calling party hosts to make sure there will be no alcohol and that there is adult supervision

EMAIL: www.21reasons.org

This message is brought to you by the Cumberland County Underage Drinking Enforcement Task Force. Members include:
every Cumberland County law enforcement agency, the District Attorney's Office, and the Maine Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division, with generous support from:

PRO
Communities Promoting Health Coalition

John E. Baldacci, Governor
Brenda M. Torrey, Commissioner

www.21reasons.org

